Act Like It's Your Business: Branding and Marketing Strategies for Actors

Scarecrow Press, 2013

This guide walks the reader through the process of creating a personal brand for a small business and then marketing that brand and broadcasting it through every step of the process ~ from choosing clothing, arranging headshots, and designing resumes to selecting a repertoire, building a website, and networking.

Get the Callback: The Art of Auditioning for Musical Theatre

Scarecrow Press, 2016

In this second edition, Flom provides practical advice on the many facets of preparation, including selection of songs and monologues to suit your voice and the audition, organizing and arranging your music, working with the accompanist, and presenting yourself to the casting team.

About

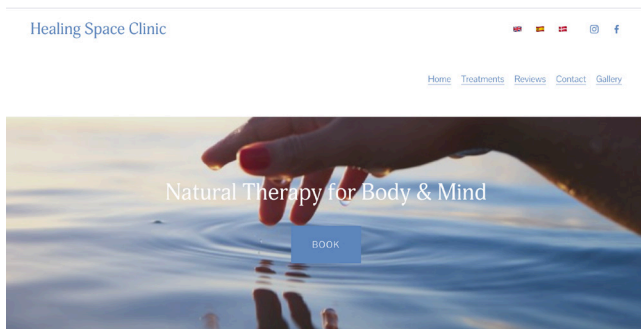

Jonathan Flom is an international musical theatre educator, a stage director, and a multi-published author. He currently serves as Head of Education at the Danish National School of Performing Arts, Musical Academy, Fredericia, where he began his tenure in August 2020.

Prior to his time in Denmark, he was Head of Musical Theatre at Shenandoah University, Virginia (2007-16) and Slippery Rock University, Pennsylvania (2019-20), as well as on the theatre faculty of Bårdar Akademiet, Oslo Norway (2016-17) and El Camino College, Los Angeles (2018-19).

Jonathan was President of the Musical Theatre Educators' Alliance (MTEA) from 2017-2019 and Vice President for Conferences from 2015-2017, during which time he successfully planned and facilitated five conferences globally (New York City; Perth, Australia; Oslo, Norway).
